TO THE HONORABLE SCOTT CLARKSON, UNITED STATES
BANKRUPTCY JUDGE; THE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE; THE DEBTOR, CHAPTER 11 TRUSTEE, CREDITORS, AND PARTIES IN INTEREST:

David Orr, Esq. ("Orr"), by and through the undersigned attorneys, hereby requests the entry of an order, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1), allowing Orr an administrative expense claim in the amount of $31,068.45 plus costs in filing and serving this Motion.

In support of his Motion, Orr states as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. On March 20, 2023 (the "Petition Date"), Debtor filed its voluntary petition for relief under chapter 7 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California (the "Court").

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §157 and 1334(b). This matter is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §157(b)(2)(A) and (B). Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1408 and 1409.

BACKGROUND

3. Debtor is a law firm which represented clients who were in debt, and employed attorneys across the country to represent its clients in any lawsuits filed against them to collect on those debts.

4. David Orr, Esq. ("ORR") is an attorney practicing in the State of Florida who was employed by Debtor as the sole Florida attorney handling litigation cases as part of debtor's practice under a prepetition salary contract at the rate of $180,000 per year¹, which is $493.15 per day in non-leap years.

5. On May 4, 2023 this court entered its order directing the United States Trustee to appoint a Chapter 11 Trustee. On May 8, 2023 this

1 court entered its order approving the appointment of Richard A.
2 Marshack as Chapter 11 Trustee ("Trustee") in this case.²

3 6. On May 25, 2023, the Trustee filed adversary proceeding 8:23-
4 ap-01046-SC seeking, among other things, injunctive relief against 5 continued representation of the debtor's clients by certain
6 attorneys and law firms. It appears from the adversary docket that a
7 temporary restraining order was issued, and then a preliminary
8 injunction was entered on June 23, 2023.³

10 7. With the consent via e-mail and telephone by staff of the 11 Trustee in this case, Orr continued representing debtor's clients in 12 Florida in this case. Orr's continued representation in these cases
13 was authorized, obviously, to prevent any defaults or issues with 14 the various cases, which would have led to liability and diminution
15 of value to this estate, as well as to preserve the value of LPG as 16 a going concern. Thus, Orr continued representing LPG's clients to 17 avoid any malpractice issues and liability that would inure to the 18 bankruptcy estate, as well as to preserve the value of LPG's
19 business for any possible sale.
20

21 8. Consequently, on July 7, 2023 this court entered its order
22 authorizing the sale of all assets of LPG to Morning Law Group
23 ("MLG"), which sale took place, certainly in part due to Orr's
24 efforts, as of August 5, 2023.⁴

26 ² Doc. 58 and 65.

27 ³ Adv. Doc. 70

28 ⁴ Doc. 320

1 9. As of the date of this Motion, Orr has not received payment for
2 services rendered on behalf of this bankruptcy estate for the period
3 of June 2, 2023 to August 4, 2023. A summary of the 252 Florida
4 cases pending during this time which Orr handled on behalf of this
5 estate is attached as Exhibit "2" to the attached Declaration of 6 David Orr.

8 10. The Trustee requested billing statements from Orr. However,
9 since Orr was on salary, he did not routinely prepare or keep 10 billing records for these clients. And, having to create those 11 retroactively and forensically for the number of cases involved,
12 would be, to understate it, very difficult. More importantly, it is 13 really unnecessary.
14

15 By example, at a modest and conservative billing rate of 16 $300.00 per hour, Orr would exceed the above daily salary rate by 17 merely billing over two (2) hours per day on ALL the cases combined.
18 Two hours on all cases breaks down to an average of thirty-six
19 seconds per case per day. As set forth in the attached Declaration
20 of David Orr, Orr greatly exceed that amount of time on all the 21 cases over the requested period. If Orr were to prepare billing
22 statements and account for all the time he spent on these cases at 23 any reasonable rate, the amount of his claim requested herein would 24 be substantially higher than the amount requested based on his
25 prepetition salary.
26

27 RELIEF REQUESTED
28

1 11. Orr respectfully requests that this Court allow an
2 administrative expense claim in the amount of $31,068.45 plus $1,000
3 costs and fees incurred in preparing this Motion, for services
4 provided and benefits conferred to the Debtor pursuant to section
5 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

7 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES
8

9 I.

10 ORR RENDERED SERVICES WHICH PRESERVED THE VALUE OF THIS ESTATE

11 11 U.S.C. §503(b)(1) provides, in pertinent part, that:

12
13 "(b) After notice and a hearing, there shall be allowed,
14 administrative expenses... including –

15 (1)(A) the actual, necessary costs and expenses of preserving the 16 estate including –

17 (i) wages, salaries, and commissions for services rendered after the 18 commencement of the case;"
19

20 While the terms of a rejected prepetition employment contract
21 are not presumptive on the value of postpetition services, they are 22 probative. See In re Cook Inlet Energy, LLC 583 B.R. 494 (9th Cir.
23 BAP 2018)

24 As the sole Florida attorney handling over 200 active
25 litigation cases for this estate postpetition, Orr directly
26 preserved the value of these cases and debtor's practice overall for 27
28

1 this estate. This directly led to the Chapter 11 Trustee being able
2 to sell the debtor's practice as set forth above.

3 It is unclear from a review of the case docket in this case
4 whether Orr's prepetition contract was rejected. If it was not, at 5 Orr's prepetition contractual rate of $180,000 per year, which
6 translates to a daily rate of $493.15, Orr rendered services to this
7 estate of $31,068.45 for which he has not been compensated.
8

9 If the prepetition contract has been rejected, using a modest
10 hourly rate of $300.00 for Orr's services at 2 hours per day on the 11 252 cases would result in an amount significantly higher than the 12 calculated salary amount requested herein.

13 There can be little doubt that Orr's services rendered
14 postpetition to this estate conferred a direct benefit to the estate
15 and preserved the value of debtor's practice enabling it to be sold
16 by the Trustee. The value of Orr's services for the period herein
17 requested, under any objective method, would be at least his salary
18 amount of $31,068.45.
19

20 WHEREFORE, Orr respectfully requests that the Court enter an order:

21 (i) allowing an administrative expense claim in the amount of 22 $32,068.45 plus costs of printing and serving this motion and
23 related documents, pursuant to section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy
24 Code and (ii) granting such other and further relief as may be just 25 and proper under the circumstances.

DECLARATION OF DAVID ORR

I, David Orr, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Florida.

2. On March 23, 2022 I was offered employment by The Litigation Practice Group, PC ("LPG") at an annual salary of $180,000.00. LPG assisted debtors with state court claims against them, and I was LPG's sole attorney in the State of Florida. A true and correct copy of my contract with LPG dated March 23, 2022 is attached hereto, marked Exhibit "1".

3. After LPG filed its Chapter 11 bankruptcy case on March 20, 2023, I continued representing its clients in Florida, having several cases pending on that date, and new cases that came through postpetition operations of LPG.

4. On May 25, 2023, the Chapter 11 Trustee, Richard A. Marshack, filed adversary proceeding 8:23-ap-01046-SC seeking, among other things, injunctive relief against continued representation of the debtor's clients by certain attorneys and law firms. It appears from the adversary docket that a temporary restraining order was issued, and then a preliminary injunction was entered on June 23, 2023 (Adv. Doc. 70)

5. On July 7, 2023 the bankruptcy court entered its order authorizing the sale of all assets of LPG to Morning Law Group ("MLG"), which sale took place, certainly in part due to Orr's efforts, as of August 5, 2023. (Doc. 320)

1 6. After numerous correspondence and phone calls with staff
2 attorneys for the Chapter 11 Trustee providing their consent, I
3 continued representation of the Florida clients of LPG during the 4 post injunction time frame prior to the takeover of the business by 5 sale of LPG to Morning Law Group. This was done to avoid any
6 malpractice issues and liability that would inure to the bankruptcy
7 estate, as well as to preserve the value of LPG's business for any 8 possible sale.

10 6. For the period of June 2, 2023 to August 4, 2023 I did not
11 receive any payment for services I rendered to or on behalf of LPG's
12 clients and, hence, to this bankruptcy estate. That 62-day period
13 at my daily rate of $493.15 ($180,000/365) results in an amount owed
14 by this estate of $31,068.45. I have additionally paid $1,000 for 15 attorney fees for preparation of this Motion. A true and correct
16 summary of the 252 Florida cases I was handling for LPG during the 17 above timeframe is attached hereto, marked Exhibit "2".

18 7. Since I was on salary, I did not prepare or keep billing
19 records for each of the client cases. At a conservative standard
20 billing rate of $300.00 per hour, I would exceed the above daily
21 salary rate by billing merely 2 hours per day on ALL the cases
22 combined. I spent far more than 2 hours per day on these cases on 23 average. 2 hours on all cases breaks down to an average of less
24 than one minute per case per day (36 seconds actually). If I were
25 to account for all the time I spent on these cases during the above
26 period, my claim amount would be many times higher than what is 27 being requested herein.
28

1 8. The foregoing facts are within my personal knowledge and if
2 called upon I can competently testify thereto.

3 I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY UNDER THE LAWS OF THE UNITED
4 STATES OF AMERICA AND STATE OF CALIFORNIA THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE
5 AND CORRECT.

6 Executed this 20th day of November 2023 at Davie, FLORIDA.
